

Joy for the World
Luke 2:8-20

Joy
Luke 2:8-20
And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night.
An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

Joy
Luke 2:8-20
But the angel said to them,
"Do not be afraid. I bring you good news of great joy that will be for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; He is Christ the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

Joy
Luke 2:8-20
Suddenly a great company of the heavenly host appeared with the angel, praising God and saying,
"Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to men on whom His favor rests."

Joy
Luke 2:8-20
When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another,
"Let's go to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has told us about."

Joy
Luke 2:8-20
So they hurried off and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby, who was lying in the manger.
When they had seen him, they spread the word concerning what had been told them about this child, and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them.

Joy
Luke 2:8-20
But Mary treasured up all these things and pondered them in her heart.
The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things they had heard and seen, which were just as they had been told.

God's way is not our way

God's way is always best

God's way is not our way

God's way is always best
but not always convenient

God's way is unconventional, unexpected
but always significant and righteous

God's way always saves

God's way leads us to Jesus and Jesus came to save us

God's way redeems us, restores us, recycles whatever junk we give Him
and uses it for good in our lives
and the lives around us.

If God is for us, whoever or whatever is against us becomes inconsequential.

God's way requires risk on our part

You can never walk on water if you don't step out of the boat.

Spiritual faith does not grow when it is only exposed to human ability.
It grows when we reach out in childlike faith to embrace the improbable but undeniable truth that God loves us and will do for us what He promises.

God's way requires sacrifice

To embrace what God has for us, we sacrifice our preconceived thoughts, our personal plans, our pettiness and pride.
